Perched on the edge of the majestic Swan River, the hotel occupies Perth’s most coveted location in Elizabeth Quay, a riverside development seamlessly connecting Perth city to the river. This leisure destination is set around a stunning 2.7 hectare inlet featuring an island playground, water park and expansive open spaces. A number of scenic cruises sail daily from Barrack Street Jetty to some of Perth’s most sought-after tourist destinations including the Swan Valley, Fremantle and Rottnest Island. Offering the ultimate in accessibility to everything Perth has to offer, the hotel is just minutes’ walk from Perth’s central business district, transport, Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre, shopping malls and The Bell Tower.
Experience the elements of exceptionality

Cutting a striking silhouette along the Swan River, The Ritz-Carlton, Perth evokes timeless luxury and the joy of discovery. Set within a stunning building on Elizabeth Quay, the 205 elegantly appointed guest rooms and suites overlook the river, skyline and urban parks with floor-to-ceiling windows offering pristine views.

ENJOY

Plush Ritz-Carlton beds with crisp white linens, exemplary furnishings and fixtures, and spa-like comforts in the well-appointed bathrooms make these warm retreats to return to at the day’s end. Select rooms and suites offer outdoor balconies and all overlook the majestic Swan River, The Bell Tower, Langley Park or city skyline.

For an elevated experience The Ritz-Carlton Club on level six features a quiet space for working, meeting or relaxing, impressive culinary presentations and beverages throughout the day including breakfast, a light lunch, exclusive afternoon tea, evening canapes and dessert; and pristine views over the Swan River and Perth city skyline from the alfresco terrace.

ESCAPE

Devoted to offering guests a holistic wellness experience, The Ritz-Carlton Spa, Perth uses its riverside setting to encourage relaxation and reflection with bespoke pampering rituals in the four idyllic treatment rooms including a couple’s suite with spa bath, double rain shower and Supreme Court Garden views.

Female and male vitality pools and saunas with floor-to-ceiling windows offer a healing connection to nature, while the state-of-the-art fitness centre and yoga studio provide a truly interconnected approach to guest wellness. The outdoor heated infinity pool enjoys exquisite views over the Swan River, Elizabeth Quay and city skyline.

SAVOUR

Carefully crafted cuisine spotlights the flavours, producers and winemakers unique to the region and takes guests on a food and wine journey that tells the history and culture of Western Australia.

Harnessing the power of nature and an open fire, Hearth Restaurant and Lounge at the lobby level, celebrates local producers from Western Australia’s Kimberley to the Great Southern regions, paired with an exclusive local wine list.

Songbird on level five is an airy, dynamic and ever-enchainting bar with a cracking fire pit for the cooler months. The informal grazing menu features barbecued meats, fresh seafood and seasonal produce complemented by delicious cocktails, local spirits, craft beer and Western Australian wine.

GATHER

The Ritz-Carlton, Perth is an exquisite address in which to host a memorable gathering with 2000 square metres of the finest facilities, custom services and personalised food and beverage offerings.

The spacious amenities comprise the majestic 550 square metre Elizabeth Quay Ballroom, available as a single space, or three smaller, private rooms. In addition, the Bell Tower and Swan River rooms are available in a variety of compositions, and overlook the stunning Swan River, Bell Tower or Elizabeth Quay.